Dreirosenanlage

The central image of the poster is a vibrant, artistic composition. It features a woman in a traditional Indian sari with green, pink, and purple elements, and a young girl with a joyful expression wearing a yellow dress. They are surrounded by a dynamic splash of colors, including yellow, orange, and red, which creates a sense of movement and celebration. The background is a soft, textured mix of light green and white. The text 'KULTUREN' is positioned in the upper half, and 'FEST' is in the lower half, both in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. The overall aesthetic is bright, colorful, and culturally diverse.
